

2019 Local Government
Elections
CANDIDATES
Return of Electoral
Donations and Expenses

Background

All candidates must submit a return of election expenses and donations even if no expenses have been incurred or donations received, this must be provided to the Electoral Officer within 55 days of the election result being declared. Once submitted the return of expenses is made available for public review on the Council website for seven years.

This document contains all the Electoral Donation and Expenses Returns returned to the Electoral Officer by candidates of the Mackenzie District Council 2019 Local Body Elections.

The returns have been presented in alphabetical order.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Suzanne Blyth', with a large, stylized flourish at the end.
